Swinging Latest Fad.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Swinging as an exercise is the latest craze among fashionable women in England. It is said to have some sort of an effect on the nerves. Swinging parties, to which men are invited as spectators, are now considered smart.

BILL HUIHUI,
(Hawaii.)

HONOLULU
ATHLETIC CLUB'S
BOXING
TOURNAMENT
TONIGHT AT THE ORPHEUM

"TIM" MURPHY.
(Australia.)

Tonight at the Orpheum when Tim Murphy of Australia and Bill Huihui, the clever Honolulu lightweight, climb through the ropes it will be the same old story. Youth vs. Experience. In many cases youth has won but in this contest it is difficult to forecast the result. Even money is being bet that the contest goes the limit. Owing to the fact that the contest is only of six round duration Murphy can loose no time but must fight every second.

Huihui must stand and fight or he will be disqualified by the referee. The rules state that a man cannot go to his knees without being struck.
Murphy was seen yesterday and said: "I have been in the ring about ten years, having started in Australia at the age of 19. I have fought the very best men of my weight in the world. If I lose tomorrow I shall retire. I have undertaken a hard contract but am in the best of condition and should win."

In an interview Huihui talked as follows: "People still say I have not the courage to face Murphy. If I thought I could not make a good showing I should never have entered into an agreement. I promise those who attend this show not to go away disappointed."
Neither man can possibly have an excuse to offer in case of defeat as they are both in the finest kind of condition. Both have trained hard and faithfully. The $200 side bet and 50 per cent of the receipts will make an interesting purse to fight for.

Ackerman and Silva will box for the heavyweight championship of the Territory. Those who saw the last contest that these men put up will remember it

WHAT ROME THINKS

THE POPE'S PHYSICIAN ENDORSES
AN AMERICAN REMEDY.

Dr. Laponi Uses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills
In His Practice Because Results
Meet His Expectations.

Dr. Laponi, the famous physician to the Vatican, whose name has recently come so greatly to the front on account of his unremitting attention to His Holiness, the late Pope Leo XIII, and the high esteem and confidence with which he is regarded by the present Pope, His Holiness Pius X, is a man of commanding genius. He is more than a mere man of science; he is a man of original and independent mind. Untrammelled by the "etiquette" of the medical profession and having used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in his practice with good results, he freely avows the facts and endorses the value of this remedy with an authority which no one will venture to question.

DR. LAPPONI'S LETTER.

"I certify that I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in four cases of the simple anaemia of development. After a few weeks of treatment, the result came fully up to my expectations. For that reason I shall not fail in the future to extend the use of this laudable preparation not only in the treatment of other forms of the category of anaemia or chlorosis, but also in cases of neurasthenia and the like."
(Signed) Giuseppe Laponi,
Via dei Gracchi 332, Rome.

The "simple anaemia of development," referred to by Dr. Laponi, is of course, that tired, languid condition of young girls, whose development to womanhood is tardy and whose health, at that period, is so often imperiled. His opinion of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People at that time is of the highest scientific authority, and it confirms the many published cases in which anaemia and other diseases of the blood, as well as nervous diseases such as nervous prostration, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and locomotor ataxia have been cured by these pills. They are commended to the public for their efficiency in making new blood and strengthening weak nerves. After such an endorsement they will be accepted by the medical and scientific world at their full value.

Dress of Americans.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—W. L. Alden, writing in today's M. A. P., says:

"As a rule, the American is well dressed, except that he has a tendency toward waistcoats that are rather too audible. He has the good sense to wear a soft hat. London undoubtedly has a somewhat subduing effect on the American. Here he is as quiet and unobtrusive as the Englishman."

"It is when he goes to the effete cities of the continent that he feels called upon to show people that he is infinitely their superior. The air of London checks the exuberance of his nationality. He treads on few British toes, he keeps himself to his fellow countrymen and is by far the most welcome of our summer visitors."

Curzon Seeks to be Premier?

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Curzon children will not return to India with their parents. They will remain at Walmer Castle, but will frequently visit their grandfather at Kedleston. Lord Curzon has stipulated that he shall only remain in India two years longer. At the end of that period, he assumes, his party will resume office after a brief Liberal administration following a general election. Then Curzon hopes to be given a cabinet rank. He even aspires to the premiership.
